Ablation; see Catheter ablation

Activities of daily living
Dispositional pessimism predicts delayed return to normal activities after inguinal hernia operation (Bowley et al). 2003;133:141-6

Adenocarcinoma, mucinous
The "new kid on the block:" intraductal papillary mucinous neoplasms of the pancreas: current concepts and controversies (Adsay). 2003;133:459-63

Adenoma
The "new kid on the block:" intraductal papillary mucinous neoplasms of the pancreas: current concepts and controversies (Adsay). 2003;133:459-63

Adrenal cortex hormones
Successful steroid therapy for postoperative mesenteric panniculitis (Miyake et al). 2003;133:118-9

Adrenal gland neoplasms
Gastric diverticulum simulating a left adrenal tumor (Chasse et al). 2003;133:447-8

Adrenalectomy
Delayed autotransplantation of a solitary kidney facilitated by pump perfusion preservation (Cendales et al). 2003;133:438-9

Analgesia
Sedation for patient in persistent vegetative state (Brett). 2003;133:122 (Letter)
Sedation for patient in persistent vegetative state (Jones). 2003;133:122 (Letter reply)

Anastomosis, surgical
Doxycycline improves wound strength after intestinal anastomosis in the rat (Siemonsma et al). 2003;133:268-76
End-to-end anastomosis of the pancreatic duct (Losanoff et al). 2003;133:351 (Letter)
Keyhole procedure: a new technique for intestinal anastomosis with a large opening and less tissue trauma, using both circular and linear staplers (Takeyama et al). 2003;133:345-8
Outflow reconstruction in right hepatic live donor liver transplantation (Kinkhabwala et al). 2003;133:243-50

Angiomyolipoma
Hepatic angiomyolipoma (Ng et al). 2003;133:594-5

Antigens, neoplasm
Mammaglobin-A is a tumor-associated antigen in human breast carcinoma (Tanaka et al). 2003;133:74-80

Antigens, tumor-associated, carbohydrate
CD8+ T-cell mediated tumor protection by Pseudomonas exotoxin fused to ovalbumin in C57BL/6 mice (Becerra et al). 2003;133:404-10

Anus neoplasms
Magnetic resonance imaging predicts sphincter invasion of low rectal cancer and influences selection of operation (Holzer et al). 2003;133:656-61

Aortic aneurysm
Renal anomalies in aortic surgery: contemporary results (Faggioli et al). 2003;133:641-6

Aortic aneurysm, abdominal
Can minilaparotomy abdominal aortic aneurysm repair be performed safely and effectively without special skills (Morishita et al). 2003;133:390-5

Appendicitis
Idiopathic segmental infarction of the omentum mimicking acute appendicitis: report of 3 cases and literature review (Ovadia and Gervasoni). 2003;133:231-2 (Letter)

Ascariasis
Gallbladder ascariasis in a patient with severe pancreatitis (Miller et al). 2003;133:445-6

B

Barrett esophagus
Length of the esophagus in patients with gastroesophageal reflux disease and Barrett's esophagus compared to controls (Korn et al). 2003;133:358-63
The short esophagus: going, going, gone (DeMeester and DeMeester). 2003;133:364-7 (Editorial)

Basement membrane
Invited research review: cell-matrix interactions in the gut epithelium (Basson). 2003;133:263-7

Bezoars
Rapunzel syndrome causing gastric emphysema and small bowel obstruction (Klipfel et al). 2003;133:120-1

Bile
Is bile flow reduced in patients with hypothyroidism (Laukkarinen et al). 2003;133:288-93

Bile acids and salts
Biliary bile acid concentration is a simple and reliable indicator for liver function after hepatobiliary resection for biliary cancer (Kuyumiya et al). 2003;133:512-20

Bile canaliculi
Tumor necrosis factor-α and interleukin-6 reduce bile canalicular contractions of rat hepatocytes (Ikeda et al). 2003;133:101-9

Biliary tract neoplasms
Biliary bile acid concentration is a simple and reliable indicator for liver function after hepatobiliary resection for biliary cancer (Kuyumiya et al). 2003;133:512-20

Biopsy
